- (6) The Issuer may also discharge the disclosure obligation only in English or Slovak. The Exchange may define whether and which documents, data and information which the issuer will submit in English or Slovak must be subsequently submitted to the Exchange also in Czech.
- (7) In compliance with the relevant laws, the Exchange is obliged to conduct specific inspection activities in relation to the suspicion of the market manipulation or of the abuse of inside information, alternatively in order to ensure a transparency of the market. Every issuer is obliged to provide the necessary cooperation to the Exchange for these inspection activities.

Article 8 – Suspension and Exclusion from Trading

- (1) The Exchange is authorized to decide to suspend or exclude the collective-investment securities from trading on the Regulated Market under the following conditions:
  - a) According to the relevant provisions of the Exchange Rules,
  - b) The Issuer has been dissolved or dissolved with liquidation, or a decision with the same or similar effect has been adopted,
  - c) The issuer or the issue have ceased to satisfy the conditions established by generally binding legislation and/or the Exchange Rules (e.g., in the event of revocation of the authorization to carry out the activities of a collective-investment fund, in cases when the conditions stated in the Article 3 (1) of these rules are not fulfilled and in other relevant cases; in such cases, the Exchange acts in compliance with the relevant laws, Exchange rules and also with relevant internal rules of the Exchange),
  - d) for other extraordinary reasons (e.g., a decision of the supervisory authority, execution of a special operation).
- (2) The provision in subsection 1 b) shall not apply if the company has been dissolved without liquidation and if the legal successor of the dissolved issuer has taken over the obligations stemming from such collective-investment securities.
- (3) If a court issues a decision declaring the issuer's insolvency, or if such a decision is adopted by a foreign competent authority with the same or similar legal effect with respect to the issuer, the Exchange will suspend the trading of all the issuer's of collective-investment securities on the Regulated Market for the necessary period of time in order to duly inform the market of this fact and/or will suspend trading for an indefinite period of time if serious reasons exist for this (e.g., together with the issue of a decision on insolvency, the corresponding authority issues a non-effective bankruptcy decision).
- (4) If a court issues a decision to declare bankruptcy against the issuer's assets or decision on rejection of the insolvency petition due to lack of the issuer's assets, the Exchange will suspend the trading of all the issuer's collective-investment securities on the Regulated market until such decision has been canceled, or until a different period of time has expired if serious reasons exist for this.
- (5) If the decision according to the previous paragraph is cancelled, the Exchange will cancel the suspension of all issuer's collective-investment securities from trading on the Exchange. The Exchange will exclude the collective-investment securities from trading as of the effective date of the decision according to the previous paragraph.
- (6) Where this article refers to a court decision, this shall also include a decision of the corresponding foreign competent authority with the same or similar legal effect.

- (7) Trading of the collective-investment securities will be terminated or suspended on the day established in the ruling on the exclusion or suspension of the collective-investment securities from trading.
- (8) The decision on suspension or exclusion of the collective-investment securities from trading shall be published by the Exchange in accordance with the relevant laws and also in the Exchange Bulletin; at the same time, the decision and its written justification shall be sent in writing to the issuer. For the avoidance of doubt, publication or delivery of the decision to the issuer is not a prerequisite for the decision to come into effect.
- (9) The decision on suspension or exclusion of collective investment securities from trading shall be based on the decision made by the Chief Executive Officer. A decision of this type may also be issued by a deputy Chief Executive Officer.

Article 9 – Removal from Trading

- (1) The Exchange shall remove the collective-investment securities from trading upon request of the issuer and upon the issuer meeting the conditions laid down in the Exchange Rules and the applicable legislation. The following documents shall be attached to the application:
  - a) a document showing that the issuer or another authorized person decided to remove the securities from trading in accordance with generally binding legal regulations of the country in which the issuer has its registered office,
  - b) other documents as may be reasonably required by the Exchange in order for the Exchange to proceed in compliance with the applicable laws (e.g., an opinion of a reputable law firm proving that the decision has been adopted in accordance with the applicable laws).
- (2) The trading in collective-investment securities will be terminated on the day established in the decision on removal of the collective-investment securities from trading (hereinafter “Termination Date”). The decision on the removal must indicate the Termination Date in accordance with the applicable legislation. For other cases, the Termination Date may not be earlier than 1 month and not later than 3 months after the delivery of the request with all the prescribed documents; however, to the extent permitted by law the Exchange and the issuer may agree on a different Termination Date.
- (3) The Exchange shall publish the decision on the removal of collective-investment securities from trading in accordance with the relevant laws and also the Exchange Bulletin, at the same time, it shall inform the issuer in writing of this decision and its justification. For the avoidance of doubt, publication or delivery of the decision to the issuer is not a prerequisite for the decision to come into effect.
- (4) The removal of the collective-investment securities from trading shall be based on the decision made by the Chief Executive Officer. A decision of this type may also be issued by a deputy Chief Executive Officer.

Article 10 – Penalties upon the Issuer’s Failure to Comply with its Obligations

- (1) (1) if the Issuer fails to comply with the conditions laid down by the Exchange Rules, the Chief Executive Officer may impose any of the following penalties, either on one-time basis or recurrently:

- a) A written reprimand,
  - b) Public announcement of the fact that notification obligations have been breached (in the Exchange Bulletin, on the website of the Exchange, in printed media and/or using other vehicles),

    - iii) for the third and every further breach in the amount of up to CZK 1,000,000,
  - d) suspension and termination of trading of the shares for the period necessary to ensure remedy,
  - e) removal of the collective-investment securities from trading.
- (2) The penalties according to paragraph 1 have the nature of contractual fines as a tool ensuring compliance with the Issuer's obligations. The specific regulation of imposition of contractual fines shall be provided in the General Agreement on Admission of Collective-Investment Securities for Trading entered into by and between the Issuer and the Exchange prior to the admission of the collective-investment securities to trading.
- Stricter measures will be imposed upon the issuer only if more moderate measures are not adequate to achieve the purpose. When imposing the measures, the Chief Executive Officer shall follow the principle of reasonability. The issuer shall comply with the penalties imposed according to the Exchange Rules.
- (3) Multiple penalties specified in paragraph 1 may apply to a single breach.
  - (4) Imposing a penalty shall not affect the discharge of the Issuer's obligations set forth in the Exchange Rules.
  - (5) The penalties may be imposed within six months of the day on which the Chief Executive Officer learns about the facts relevant for the imposing thereof but no later than one year following the occurrence of such events.

Article 11 – Procedure for Imposing Penalties

- (1) Should the issuer fail to comply with its obligations and a penalty may be imposed upon the issuer the Exchange shall send a written notice to the Issuer's registered office or registered branch of the Issuer in the Czech Republic, or at another address which the Issuer has conclusively specified as a contact address for communication with the Exchange.
- (2) The written notice according to paragraph 1 shall include:
  - a) specification of the reasons for which the penalty is imposed,
  - b) penalties imposable upon the Issuer,
  - c) a request asking the Issuer to ensure remedy, make a statement or provide all details relevant for the case concerned, including the date by which the issuer is to comply with the request.

- (3) For the needs of the proceedings the relevant body of the Exchange is entitled to request information, documents or other materials from the Issuer that could help determine the true and complete state of affairs.
- (4) The issuer is obliged to comply with the request contained in the notice.
- (5) The decisions on imposed sanctions will be delivered to the Issuer's registered office or registered branch of the Issuer in the Czech Republic, or at another address which the Issuer has conclusively specified as a contact address for communication with the Exchange. The decision may include a decision on its publication in the Exchange Bulletin and on the website of the Exchange and, if applicable, include the due date for the maturity of the financial penalty.
- (6) The decision on the application of a measure can be appealed within 15 calendar days of the delivery thereof to the issuer.

Article 12 – Liability

By admission of collective-investment securities for trading, the Exchange does not assume any liability related to these investment instruments and is not liable for any damage that occurs as a result of trading of these instruments.
